First Division Advisory Board Meeting

Submitted by Richard Meadows

The LMPD 1st Division Advisory Board named Officer Brett Ringswald as the Officer Of the Month for the division. Officer Ringswald responded to a call of gunshots in the 3400 block of Northwestern Parkway. Upon arrival Officer Ringswald located a victim with a gunshot wound to the chest. He applied a chest seal and pressure to control the bleeding until LMEMS and LDF arrived. Officer Ringswald’s quick action, training, experience and willingness to exercise calm actions helped the victim survive the injuries. Officer Ringswald actions reflect great credit upon himself, the 1st Division and Louisville Metro Police Department.

Over all in the 1st Division car thefts are down. Throughout downtown the Department of Public Works have installed 120 signs reminding people to: Lock Your Car, Take Your Keys and Hide Your Belongings. Good advice whether it is downtown or in front of your house. Don’t make it easy to steal your possessions.

Throughout the Division violent crime is down. However robberies are up. It’s the holiday season. Please be aware of our surroundings. Put your packages in the trunk of your vehicle.

GOOD NEWS! The 1st Division is getting a speed machine. That is the trailer and sign you see with your speed flashing parked along side the street. Louisville Metro Council Members James, Arthur and Purvis each contributed one-third the cost from their district funds to get it. Expected delivery time is late Winter to early Spring.

Pause a moment and think about how big Metro Louisville is in land area. Remember it is all of Jefferson County now. So Louisville’s revenue comes from all over, but 13% of all the revenue Louisville gets each year to run all the different departments comes from DOWNTOWN. That area basically bounded by Broadway to the South, Ninth Street to the West, the Ohio River to the North and Brook to the East accounts for thirteen percent of the money Louisville gets each year. Downtown Louisville is in the First Division and the far East side of Portland borders the far West side of downtown.

Remember the 1st Division is not just Portland. It includes Russell, Downtown (DAP), NULU, Phoenix Hill and Butchertown.

Over the past month officers have issued 28 Pedestrian Safety Tickets. Similar to a traffic ticket you get while driving, PSTs are issued for pedestrians violating foot traffic laws - primarily being in the street at intersections. Of those 28 tickets, 21 of the people cited had bench warrants for their arrest. And they were issued in Downtown.

OF NOTE: Stolen firearm - 2500 Blk Bank St. 3 autos taken from 1800 Blk W. Main St w/keys in the cars in a locked area. Auto stolen from the 100 N. 18th St. Auto NOT drivable, had to be towed. One catalytic converter stolen in the 1700 Blk of Northwestern Prkw. 2500 Blk W. Market burglary iPad, sound bar & money stolen.

Sharing with our Kentucky Neighbors in need

This past weekend the 1st Division Police Auxiliary held their annual Children's Christmas Party event. We received a tremendous amount of donations. We had items leftover after every family had been served. Folks from the Police Auxiliary Board and from Good Shepherd Church met and decided to donate all leftover items to tornado relief. Along with the leftover items, we received additional generous donations.

Thanks to volunteers, the items were delivered to Madisonville on Wednesday, December 15th.

Thank you to so many . . . Duke and Holly Cotton, Paige and Reileigh Williams @ Paige is my agent , Hampton Scurlock @ Best of Ky Rentals, Good Shepard Parish, Bruce Wren @ Webb Embroidery, Mike and Leesa Jolly @ Emily Wright Foundation, Erma Payton Moody, Jason Hernandez Jeff Lush, and many more.

Happy? New Year

Hello everybody, little Carmie and Grampa here, just wondering what this new year has in store for us. One thing for sure, I hope it's better than the last two years! Grampa, me, the chickens and the bunnies would like to wish Scotti, Todd, and Save-A-Lot Happy New Year for their donations, and let's not forget all the tornado victims who lost everything. Keep them in your prayers and in your heart! See you on the water or in the field.

Personal

Thomas Galloway left this world on November 14, 2021 at age 71. Time to join his beloved father Grayson, mother Maxine, sister Helen, brother Donnie & his grand daughter Cambrey! So happy we got to visit several times before his passing! We reminisced about several thing! His daughter Angie is so sweet & strong & blessed to have her in my life! I will miss you uncle Tom! Dee Dee

Happy Birthday

Happy Heavenly birthday grandma Audrey Maxine Galloway. I cherish every memory of you each & everyday. I've been upset lately to know grandpa fell vulnerable & was used & our family home is gone! So wrong to take advantage of the elderly. One day God will judge those! Love you, Dee Dee.

When I Die

Please don't sigh! Hold your head high! A lot of you won't get to say bye! Some will cry! Some may laugh! Others might be mad!

I came in this world all alone! I am probably leaving the same way! My oldest grandson said he didn't want to see me dead! I have a lot of great memories with many! Never a reason for my family to fight! If ever close to me you know I have looked out for everyone! Perhaps you will see me again someday!

When you think of me, think of a butterfly, hummingbird, horse, cardinal or something sweet bye & bye! For sure a eagle because I am free! It may be soon or when I am close to 80. I've been far more good than I have been bad! I never done none no wrong! So don't focus on the times I was red & mean. Think of the good when you had somewhere to lean! I've lost family close to me not just because of death but that we disagree!

1 month after my death my obituary will be in the Portland Anchor. I wrote it & my own eulogy too! Please take care try to do your best & not your worst! Always be careful what you give & who you trust because people will use you easily! Yes I am afraid! I wear a smile because my bed is made!

My oldest son said I am the smartest & strongest. My youngest son said I am the most independant realist. I was not true to myself, but always honest with you. Cherish life, don't waste it. Love, your mom, sister & friend

Portlandiaky Word Game

It doesn't take a culture-savvy person to know that a tv series exists called Portlandia. This comedy series is a never-ending liberal self-own, featuring weed-drenched dialogue and tire-sandal-scuffing dirtbags. Maybe you haven't noticed but our very own Portland is a never-ending conservative self-own, featuring weed-drenched dialogue and boot-scuffing dirtbags. This is a super cool archetype-foil for my idea of exploring fill-it-in word games for a good rendition of our ever-burgeoning Portland culture. With that as a back-drop, and using a random number generator for selecting which Portlandia episode to use as archetype, the result is below. The game involves filling in a word in the list below, then reading the paragraph below the list with the words chosen. You will really want to be doing this...and in a group of any kind.

- _____ favorite brand of cigarette
- _____ cheapest beer you can think of
- _____ best spot for free food
- _____ a book you haven't read yet
- _____ name of a friend you never want to see again
- _____ favorite prescription drug you use but don't have prescription for
- _____ month and year of the last time you had a large leafy green salad
- _____ brand of favorite hand gun

IN THIS EPISODE, we find that:

--Sandra hits it off with the guy who declines her credit card so they go to the park and sip on (((2))) into the evening.

--Nina and Lance have an infestation of ants so they torture them with the business end of (((1))) to manifest their anger.

--The Mayor looks for a world record that will bring tourists to Portland, and thinks it might have something to do with our infatuation with (((6))).

--Fred and Carrie help Portland secede; the social-fabric-terrorists receive an award for best stereophonic hand-gun firing in the air with a (((8))).

--Dave and Kath leave notes on cars and sign them with (((5))).

--Jill tries a radical diet, not having tried anything new since (((7))).

--A school hires a bully to teach the children about grit, but the project was curtailed when it was learned that (((4))) was involved in an incident with a child's broken nose.

--A traveler checks in to one of our unconventional hotels, and discovers (((3))) and never leaves.

--Portland is declared the most anti-feminist city in the country and Toni and Candace try to deal with all of the attention by declaring, "I don't care if I go to prison."

So far there is no funding allocated for a mini-series of Portlandiaky, but if it appears, filming will start immediately and there will be no paucity of super-charged content. Can we start crowd-sourcing this immediately?

Stay active even when it's cold outside!

Winter is here! Cold weather and shorter days make it harder to find the time and motivation to be active. Many of us feel like hibernating instead! But physical activity is important all year round. Almost all of us would feel better, be able to do more, and be healthier by being more active than we are now. Physical activity is a great way to lose weight too!

Being physically active means engaging in aerobic exercises and strengthening exercises. Adults should aim for 30 minutes of moderate aerobic exercises 3 to 5 days a week (walking, aerobics, biking, yard work – anything that works your heart and lungs). Adults should also do 8 to 10 strengthening exercises 2 to 3 days a week (anything that strengthens your muscles by making them work against resistance). Start small! Get support. Try some of the free resources below! And talk with your doctor before you start a physical activity program.

Exercising outside

- Wear layers – Exercise makes a lot of body heat, but once you start to tire and the sweat dries, you can get chilled. Dress in layers that you can take off since you start to sweat and then put back on as needed. And don't forget a hat or headband – more than 30% of your body heat is lost through your head!
- Be visible – Wear light or reflective clothing so drivers can see you, especially since it gets dark early.
- Drink plenty of fluids – Drink water before, during and after your workout, even if you're not thirsty. You can become just as dehydrated in the cold as in the heat.

Exercising indoors

- Walk around the block.
- Walk up and down the hallway or the stairs in your house or apartment building.
- Create a home gym with a set of weights, an exercise ball and a jump rope.
- Check out the videos and links at the Family Health Centers website: www.fhclouisville.org/healthed

Recipes from the Ladies of Baptist Tabernacle

Winter is here and that means hearty meals of delicious soups and warm tasty casseroles. Here's a few to make you hungry and appreciate a warm kitchen.

Chicken Casserole

2 c. shredded cooked chicken
2 Tbsp melted butter
1 can cream of chicken soup
¼ c. grated cheese
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 c. rice
¼ c. chicken broth, if needed
½ c. mayonnaise

Cook the rice and place in large bowl. Add chicken, soup, lemon juice, butter, grated cheese, mayonnaise and chicken broth. Mix together and place in casserole dish. Bake at 350 degrees for 30-40 minutes.

Ham and Broccoli Casserole

bread crumbs
½ c. shredded cheese
1 pkg. frozen broccoli
½ c. milk
1 c. of cubes of ham
2 Tbsp butter
¼ c. flour (add more if needed)

Cook broccoli for 5 minutes in boiling water, drain and place in casserole dish. In a skillet melt butter add flour and stir until it is blended. Add Shredded cheese and stir until melted. Add ham and mix. Pour cheese sauce and mix. Sprinkle bread crumbs of top. Bake until crumbs are brown.

Hamburger Casserole

1 lb hamburger
1 c. cream of mushroom soup
1 pkg. Tater Tots or Hash Browns
¼ cup milk
1 c. mixed vegeta
1 medium onion, chopped
½ c. shredded cheese

Brown hamburger and onions. Line Tater Tots or Hash Browns in a 9 x 13 inch pan. Cover with hamburger and onion mixture. Combine milk to soup in bowl add mixed vegetables and mix well. Pour on top of hamburger mixture. Sprinkle cheese on top. Bake at 350 degrees for 45-55 minutes.

Lasagna

2 lbs ricotta or cottage cheese
2 eggs
2 lbs hamburger
1 lb Mozzarella cheese
(more if you like)
2 jars pasta sauce
1 box Lasagna noodles
oregano (use for your own taste)

You might do well if there is another person to help prepare this with you.

Boil lasagna noodles until tender. In a bowl combine eggs and cottage cheese. Cook hamburger, drain and add sauce. In a 9 x 13 inch pan start with a layer of lasagna noodles. Add meat sauce. Layer of noodles and cheese and egg mixture. Add mozzarella cheese layer. Repeat until finished. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese and shredded mozzarella cheese. Bake in 350 degree oven for 50 minutes.

Chili

1 lb hamburger
1 tsp pepper
1 c. red kidney beans
½ tsp cayenne pepper
1 c. hot chili beans
1 medium onion, chopped

1 c. tomato sauce

Add water if needed

chili pepper to taste (make sure you put it on the table for those who like a lot)

Fry hamburger until pink disappears. Drain. Place in Dutch oven or large pan. Add remaining ingredients. Cook over medium heat. Some folks like spaghetti in their chili so add that if you want to. Other folks like thick chill, others like it more runny. That's what the extra water is for. I aim to please all of you chili lovers. Oh, another thing, some people like spaghetti in their chili. So, perhaps you could boil some just in case. Of course, you will need crackers or corn bread. So, which ever you favor have some handy. And shredded sharp cheddar cheese and more chopped onions. Now, that should please everyone.

Hearty Beef Stew

1 pkg of stew meat
1 cup beef broth
4 potatoes peeled and cubed
1 can peas
4 carrots peeled, cut in 1 inch pieces
salt and pepper to taste
1 medium onion chopped
2 cups of water
½ c. chopped celery

Roll stew meat in flour and place in hot skillet with a small amount of oil. Braise meat. Remove and place in Dutch oven. Add remaining ingredients. Bring to boil, lower to medium heat and cook until potatoes are tender.

Stay safe and warm!
